

GUEST ALES

Here at the Duke we like to keep it real and keep it local! Being a Free house, the favourite part of Tim (owner and real ale hobbyist) and Pippa's (Bar Manager - prefers wine but will drink anything!) job is to select (and sample) their real ale selection.

OUR OWN

LONG WAIT

Brewed by the boys from the Duke in conjunction with master brewers at Hook Norton. Rich, deep, orange gold with a satisfying biscuity malt softness followed by a welcoming honey aftertaste. 4.2%

ALWAYS ON

HOOKY

Local favourite Hooky (3.5%, golden well balanced ale from Hook Norton Brewery)

GOLDEN CITRUS

Award winning from Turpin's Lodge micro-brewery (4.2% hoppy, golden ale)

IN THE PAST

XT 4/13/15/ & 25

All from XT Brewery in Long Crendon

SHAG-WEAVER

A crispy golden and hoppy brew from North Cotswold Brewery 4.5%

SIDE POCKET FOR A TOAD

Tring Brewery 3.6%

HUNG, DRAWN N PORTERED

Strong, dark porter 5%

Villagers are encouraged to get involved (The Book Club chose Side Pocket) and Graeme Bullock even sponsored a firkin of his favourite Ossian by Inveralmond Brewery (not as local being from Perth, Scotland!). You are invited to visit and sample the latest offerings and enter in the great ale debate!
